TO: Assistant Director
The Central Intelligence Agency
Office of Reports and Estimates

FROM: The Department of State
Office of Intelligence Research

SUBJECT: CIA/ORE 7-50

The Director of the Office of Chinese Affairs informs me that he has read with interest ORE 7-50, "Probable Developments in Taiwan." He notes, however, that this report is based upon information available to CIA as of February 16, 1950, and has asked me to inquire whether or not your conclusions would be substantially modified by intelligence received since that date. I do not believe that a new national intelligence estimate on Taiwan is required, but I will appreciate receiving within the next two weeks your informal appraisal of the significance of recent intelligence on that area.
